HOCKEY STINGERS IN "BIG BROTHER" BENEFIT

The Concordia University Stingers will meet the defending Canadian University Champion, Toronto Varsity Blues on Saturday, February 2nd at 2:15 p.m. at the Dorval Arena in a game sponsored by the West Island "Big Brothers and Sisters Organization". All proceeds from the game will go to the Organization.

It is hoped that the game will become an annual event in support of the fine work done by the Big Brothers and Sisters volunteers.

The game itself will provide plenty of excitement if it is anything like the previous games played so far this season by the two teams. On December 7th, the Blues edged the Stingers 2-1 in Toronto, while in the CBC - Micron held recently at Concordia, the Stingers won 4-1 in the preliminary round only to lose 5-4 in double overtime in the final.

The same two teams will meet on February 1st at Concordia in an 8:15 p.m. start. Tickets for both games are on sale at the Concordia Athletics Complex, while tickets for the Saturday game may be purchased from West Island Big Brother and Sisters volunteers at the Dorval Arena.
